

Introducing Discover & Compare: outputs from the NBK

Diana Massam, Jisc

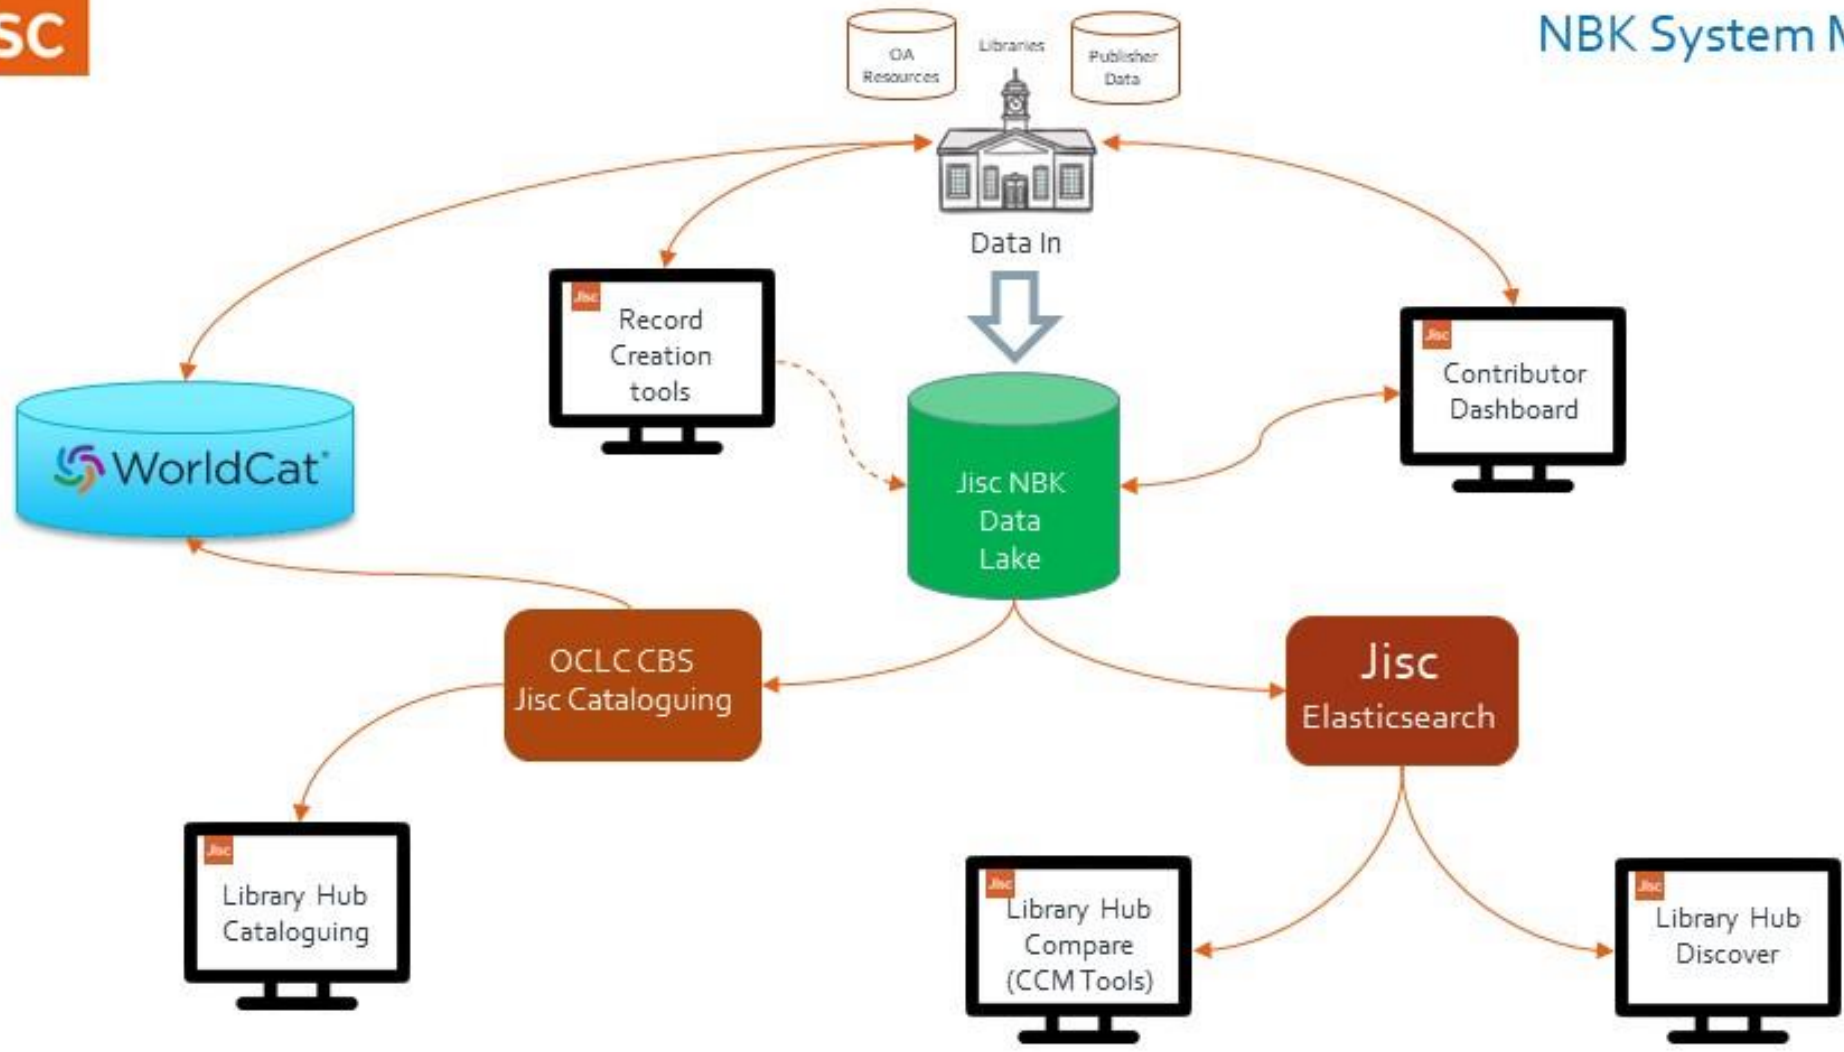

Jisc has been working on a transformation programme to develop a more effective, efficient and cohesive set of library services to meet the needs of its members and deliver a number of benefits.

The three new service areas have been formally named under a new collective offer, Library Hub, with individual names reflecting the functions that each area delivers.

New service area	Current service
Discover & Compare	Copac Collection Management Tools Copac RLUK shared cataloguing service SUNCAT Zetoc

- » The NBK is a bibliographic database, which will underpin several Jisc Library Hub service components
- » These include:
  - › Discover: <https://libraryhub.jisc.ac.uk/discover> (pilot launched Feb 2019, full service available July 2019)
  - › Compare (collection management, available July 2019)
  - › Cataloguing: <https://cataloguing.libraryhub.jisc.ac.uk> (authentication required; pilot launched Feb 2019, full service available July 2019)
    - Request access: <http://bit.ly/LHClogin>

The screenshot shows the Jisc Library Hub interface. At the top, there is a header with the Jisc logo and a search bar labeled 'Forename Surname'. Below the header is a navigation bar with 'Discover and Compare' and 'Menu' buttons. The main content area displays a book entry for 'Pride and Prejudice' by Jane Austen. The entry includes a 'BOOK' label, a 'PRINTED RESOURCE' icon, and an 'E-RESOURCE' icon. The author is listed as Jane Austen, the ISBN number is 9780141439518, and the publisher is Penguin Classics Ltd. The publication location and date are United Kingdom, 2003. The edition is the First Edition, and the genres are Fiction, Romance Novel, and Satire. The subject is English Literature, and the language is English. The format is Printed and electronic resource. The physical description is Paperback, 448 pages, 308g, 198mm x 19mm x 129mm. The notes indicate that it includes bibliographic references. An 'OPEN ACCESS LINK' is provided: <https://www.gutenberg.org/files/1342/1342-h/1342-h.html>. Below this, a section titled '26 Holding Libraries' lists the closest libraries: Manchester University, Liverpool University, and Leeds University. A link to 'See 23 Holding Libraries' is also present. The bottom of the page shows a 'Summary' tab.
